Gulf General Investments Company

- The stock traded in the red for the second consecutive session on Thursday and settled at AED0.421.
- On the daily chart, the MACD is trading in the negative region along with the RSI and stochastic heading southwards, hints at a bearish technical scenario. Additionally, the weekly MACD and RSI indicators are with a bearish tone, further affirming the above stance.
- Key short-term support is situated at the AED0.415 level, followed by daily lower Bollinger band (currently placed at AED0.410) and AED0.407 levels. A move back below the latter might lead to further bearish pressure on the stock.
- On the contrary, the key technical barrier is placed at the AED0.425 level, followed by the 20day SMA (currently trading at AED0.430) and AED0.438 levels. A sustained break above the latter might trigger strength in the stock.

Damac Properties Dubai Co

- The stock traded with a bullish tone for the second straight session on Thursday and ended at AED2.61, after notching a high at AED2.62.
- Currently, the weekly MACD and stochastic oscillators are trading with a negative showing, reflecting at a bearish momentum in the coming week. However, the daily stochastic and RSI indicators are attempting to move out of their oversold region, indicating at potential positive momentum in the coming session.
- The key technical obstacle is located at the AED2.65 level, followed by AED2.68 and the 20day SMA (currently trading at AED2.71). A break above the latter might trigger further positivity in the stock.
- On the flipside, immediate support is placed at the AED2.57 level, followed AED2.53 and the 200day SMA (currently trading at AED2.51). A breach below the latter might reverse the main trend to bearish.

Emaar Properties

- Following for four successive bullish sessions, the stock posted significant losses on Thursday and finished at AED7.28.
- On the daily chart, a possible signal line crossover from above by the MACD coupled with the RSI and stochastic moving south hints at negative momentum in the near term.
- Crucial support is aligned at the AED7.25 level, followed by AED7.20 and the 200daySMA (currently trading at AED7.17). A breach below the latter might lead to further downside momentum in the stock.
- However, the weekly RSI and stochastic oscillators are trading with a positive showing, suggesting that the room for upside momentum still exists. Key resistance is positioned at the AED7.31 level, followed by the 20day SMA (currently placed at AED7.34) and the 50day SMA (currently trading at AED7.37). A surge above the latter might trigger positivity in the stock.

Drake & Scull International

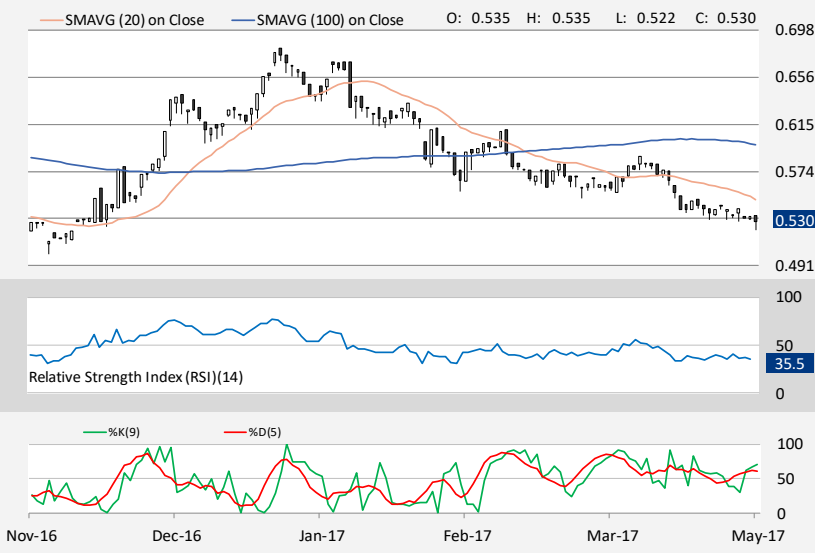

- The stock traded with a positive showing on Thursday and closed at AED0.443, after making a high at AED0.445.
- Although the weekly stochastic is slightly moving upwards, the MACD and RSI indicators are placed at a lower level below their midlines, reflecting at a weak technical picture. On the daily chart, the momentum oscillators are trading with a bearish tone, further supporting the above view.
- Intraday support is seen at the AED0.439 level, followed by the AED0.435 and the AED0.430 levels. A breach below the latter might lead to bearishness in the stock.
- On the bright side, crucial resistance is placed at the 20day SMA (currently trading at AED0.450), followed by the AED0.455 and the 50day SMA (currently placed at AED0.460). A break above the latter might trigger further positive momentum in the stock.

Islamic Arab Insurance Company

- The stock has been trading in a consolidated range since past several sessions. The stock posted marginal losses on Thursday to end at AED0.446, after moving as low as AED0.438.
- As clearly visible on the weekly chart, the MACD is heading south along with stochastic and RSI trading at their oversold territories, hints at bearish momentum in the coming week. Moreover, the daily momentum oscillators are trading with a weak bias, further validating the above stance.
- Key support is located at the AED0.443 level, followed by the AED0.437 and AED0.433 levels. A breach below the latter might lead to negativity in the stock.
- On the other hand, key resistance is situated at the AED0.450 level, followed by AED0.455 and the 20day SMA (currently placed at AED0.460). A break above the latter might trigger upside momentum in the stock.

Deyaar Development

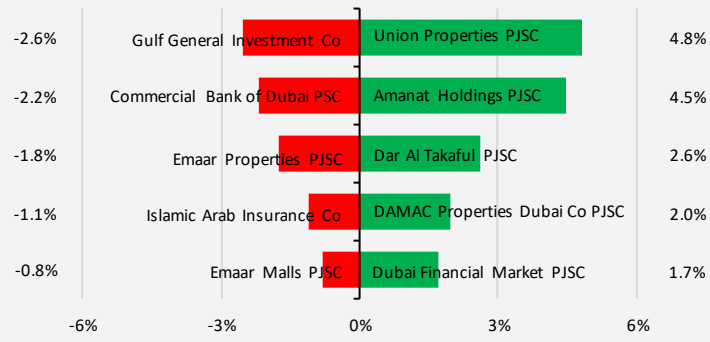

- The stock has been trading in a downward trending channel since past four weeks. On Thursday, it traded in the red to close at AED0.530, following a low at AED0.522.
- With the daily momentum oscillators placed at a lower level below their centrelines, the near-term technical outlook appears to be bearish. Additionally, the weekly MACD and RSI oscillators are trading with a negative showing, further supporting the bearish view.
- Key intraday support is positioned at the AED0.525 level, followed by the daily lower Bollinger band (currently placed at AED0.520) and AED0.516 levels. A breach below the latter might lead to further acceleration to the downside.
- On the positive side, important resistance is placed at the AED0.535 level, followed by the AED0.539 and AED0.543 levels. A break above the latter might trigger bullishness in the stock.
